

National Social Work Day

National Social Work Day reminds us to honor the dedication of social workers who inspire change and uphold dignity in society.

Social work is a practice-based profession

An Academic Discipline

Plant a tree today, nurture life tomorrow 🌱

Industrial field work practice

Industrial field work practice helps social work students apply skills in labor welfare, employee relations, and organizational well-being

Clinical social work

Clinical social work is a specialized practice that focuses on diagnosing, treating, and preventing mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders.

Labour laws safeguard the rights of workers while ensuring fairness and balance in industrial relations
